DIRECTIONS

As we are preparing for the annual meeting of the Arkansas Baptist State Convention in Jonesboro, it is time to prepare the next edition of PraiSing Him for our first Concert of Worship, November 1 at Calvary Baptist Church in Little Rock. I am so grateful to Rick Couch, and our friends at Calvary Baptist for all of the work they will do to host us!

EVERY MASTER'SINGER SHOULD CLICK ON THIS LINK AND RESPOND, INDICATING YOUR PARTICIPATION AT CALVARY: <https://goo.gl/forms/5jGEdOye8ZiLam2y1>. PLEASE DO NOT EMAIL CARLA OR ME WITH YOUR RESPONSE UNLESS YOU ARE HAVING DIFFICULTY WITH THE LINK.

We will have a new group photo made while at Calvary. It has been a few years since we have updated our official group photo, and the new ladies outfit have just made the new photo a must!

Even though the annual meeting is in progress, I want to thank Jeff Stotts and Central Baptist Church of Jonesboro for all the work of hosting not only Master'Singers, but the entire annual meeting. Specific plans to host this meeting begin a year in advance. Jeff and his crew spent the weekend setting up, moving equipment, etc. Jeff and the rest of the staff and church family at Central will be ready and will host us with excellence!!! THANK YOU!

Leadership team, don't forget our meeting at Calvary. See the schedule listed in this newsletter.

I do want to thank the Women's Chorus Leadership Team for all of their hard work in handling the new outfit for the ladies. You have kept me out of it...which is a good thing for me and for you! I can't wait to see all of you with your new look!

Are you determined to go to Ukraine in 2020 unless God shows you why you should not go or that you simply cannot go? I can't wait to see who God is going to send for what could be our final Ukraine trip April 20-May 1, 2020. Why final you say? At some point, this guy (meaning me) is going to retire, and your next leader will need the freedom to have his own vision, including mission endeavors! As for the retirement thing, I have no idea when it is going to happen, so don't get your hopes up... haha! For now, try praying "God, you have called me to go. Show my why I should not or cannot go in April 2020!"

As you have been hearing through various sources, our friend and supporter, Carla Whittington, is leaving us to go back to the classroom. I am so incredibly happy for her, but sad for us. She assured me the other day that just as God has provided and directed in her life, she is confident that God has somebody for us.

I love you guys and love the privilege I have of serving you in our state and serving WITH you in Master'Singers. Thank you for your sacrificial gift of time and talent!

Looking forward to seeing you...At Calvary! (That would make a great hymn title!)

PRESIDENTIAL PONDERINGS

Bearing Fruit

Elizabeth Barnett
Women's Chorus President

"He cuts off every branch in me that bears no fruit, while every branch that does bear fruit he prunes so that it will be even more fruitful" (John 15:2 NIV).

I was recently reminded of the concept of pruning from a book called "Necessary Endings" by Henry Cloud. The book reminded me that there are times when old things must be cut away so new things will have room to grow and flourish. John 15:2 indicates that God not only wants to eliminate the unproductive parts of our lives, the parts that bear no fruit, but He also wants to trim things from the productive parts of our lives so they can be even more fruitful. One way to know if it's time for necessary ending is to ask yourself if an activity has become both non-essential and overwhelming—if it drains your energy faster than it can be replenished.

For me, Master'Singers is one of those ESSENTIAL activities in my life. It feeds my soul in ways that other activities would only dream of doing. I find satisfaction in the music. I find friendships with like-minded musicians are stronger than with others that I have known since grade school, and there is something that happens when you put THAT music with THOSE people and lift up ONE God together. It meets soul needs that nothing else can meet. I want to be intentional about making sure there is room in my life for this necessary activity.

If your life is anything like mine, many activities and obligations seem beyond our control, but we can begin deciding what we can control and taking action on those things. Let's pray that God will help us discern what is best and let some of the other things go. Join me in praying that He will do this pruning work in us so that we might bear more fruit.

Christian Karaoke

Andrew Pouncey
Men's Chorus President

Have you ever been guilty of just going through the motions as you lead in worship? I know I'm guilty of times where I have completely checked out from what I am singing/playing. It is just so easy to think about something else rather than giving our full attention to God in worship. It could be just a simple, "I wonder what's for lunch?" or "Did I pack Samuel's pacifier for him this morning?" I like to refer going through the motions in leading worship as Christian Karaoke: singing the right words, but thinking about something completely different.

Fortunately, even though we may fail God from time to time, He never fails us. In Isaiah chapter 29, verse 13 describes Christian Karaoke by the people of God "honoring me with their mouths, but their hearts are far from me." In the very next verse, God looks at those that are going through the motions and says, "Even so, I will continue to do wonderful things with this people." God's mercy and grace covers our faults, and He still wants to do wonderful things as you worship Him!

So how do you overcome Christian Karaoke as a worship leader? Try your best to be present and focus on more than the notes. Recognize the words that you are lifting to Lord as truth and a means of sharing the Gospel with others. I challenge you at this next Concert of Worship to not be guilty of simply going through the motions, but being TRUE WORSHIPERS that worship in spirit and in truth.
